By Urban Space

OCCUPY THE MOMENTUM

The most valuable work happens when the friction of the business day is removed entirely.

In a city of generic hotel boxes, Meet Space offers a high-spec sanctuary designed for teams that demand a space they can truly call their own.

Located on the iconic, tree-lined Park Place, you are positioned directly at Cardiff's civic pulse point - calm enough for deep focus, yet seconds away from the city's most vibrant independent hubs.

This is a private, ground-floor takeover designed for those who demand autonomy, agility, and a space that feels like a destination, not just a room.

THE ANATOMY OF A BREAKTHROUGH

Whether you are a training provider needing a controlled environment or a leadership team mid-session, the floor belongs to you.

Nooks & Pods: Quiet zones and private pods integrated into the floor plan for the side-chats and 1-on-1s where the real decisions happen.

The Lookout: Exclusive access to our rooftop terrace (just across the road) for open-air thinking or sunset debriefs overlooking the National Museum.

The Extended Campus

The calm of the Museum provides a prestigious backdrop to your day, but the experience doesn't end at our front door. Think of Cardiff's most vibrant cultural neighborhood as your extended office campus - where the city's finest independent culinary minds and off-beat social spaces are ready to bookend your structured sessions.
